If the case is the head of a family, dedending upon him for support, they are often brought to absolute want by his loss of time from his occupation. You naturally ask, Is there any remedy for all this? We reply most emphatically that there is. Let us look into the condition that confronts us. Cataract is due to lack of nutrition of the lens, except in a few cases, such as traumatism, etc. Then it naturally follows that the modus operandi is to improve the nutrition of the lens. Any and all remedial agents, medicinal, electrical and mechanical, which have this effect, directly or indirectly, aid in the absorption of cataract. There are various local and constitutional remedies which produce this effect to a greater or less degree. One remedy especially has been advertised extensively for that purpose, Succus Cineraria...
