II. until the close of the autumn. He reached Galveston on the 14th of February, and at once commenced his work, which was brought to a close by the advance of summer, on the 22d of July. The party has had the use of a schooner belonging to the coast survey, sailed by Mr. Andrew J. Hussey, of Alexandria, who has given entire satisfaction in the execution of the contract for sailing the vessel and providing for the crew. Since the close of the season, Mr. Fauntleroy has been engaged in recomputing observations of previous years, which his constant employment in the field had hitherto prevented. In this he has been aided by Mr. Davidson. The party is under instructions to resume the triangulation in section IX. as early as practicable. OFFICE WORK. . 10 The organization of the office has continued during the past year as it was at the period of my last report. The extension of the work has required the employment of additional persons in connexion with it, rendering changes desirable, which the exertions of Captain A. A. Humphreys, United States topographical engineers, the assistant in charge, have prevented from becoming pressing or detrimental. The services of this officer to the government, in this work, have well merited the promotion which he has received from seniority; and I would respectfully call the attention of the head of the Treasury Department to them, and would ask that representations may be made to...
