First, there are some notable outward improvements; the grass is coming up rapidly on the big football field, but as it will not be ready for some months, we are playing on the side of the cricket-ground, where new goal-posts have been put up for the seniors. The remainder, intermediates and juniors, have a smaller field with the old goal-posts. Then there is a new building over the well, which houses two new pumps, worked by an electric motor. On the side next the cricket pitch is a verandah which will be used for scoring at cricket matches. But it is not only in the grounds that a great change will be noticed. The large room formerly called the playroom has been cleared out, and the walls lined with over 80 commodious lockers for the use of...
