Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Annual Reports President and Treasurer, 1907 To the Board of Trustees of Wellesley College: - In presenting a report of the year 1906-07 to the Trustees, there are some features to mention and some circumstances to relate which have never before occurred in the history of the College. For the first time the President of Wellesley had a sabbatical year. Miss Shafer, president from 1888 to 1894, had more than fulfilled the conditions for claiming such a privilege by twenty days; but she is my only predecessor who had been so long in office. We all think of Mrs. Palmer's distinguished service, which lasted nearly ten years, but part of that time she was a professor. Miss Howard, the first president, completed five years of service; and Mrs. Irvine, who was appointed upon Miss Shafer's death, four years and a half. So that when seven years had fully elapsed from the time of my entrance into office, a year more than the time entitling me to the sabbatical leave, it seemed wise to avail myself of this privilege and spend a part of the year, in accordance with the wish of the founder of the fund, in travel abroad. Therefore, on the thirtieth of June, 1906, I sailed from Boston, landing at Genoa a fortnight later. The summer was spent in Switzerland and Italy, and the autumn months in the Canton de Vaud on the Lake of Geneva. Beautiful and restful as this early part of the year was, it was all more or less within my range of experience, as I had often seen Switzerland, and had lived for months at a...
