A-14 Creating Partnerships for Workforce Investment: How Services Are Provided Under WIA Revised Final Report: June 2003 Profiles of Study Sites with one agency taking a lead role, based on the theory that the pooled expertise of a number of organizations would deliver better services to a variety of customers. The lead organization would be responsible for meeting fiscal, auditing, contractual, and reporting requirements and have the authority and responsibility to act for the group. Three collaboratives consisting of national and local, community-based organizations, for-profit firms, and public agencies were awarded Boston One-Stop charters. Boston PIC was also an early, pre-WIA innovator in the area of customer choice. The local board initiated its own Individual Training Account (ITA) demonstration project in 1995. The pilot set aside 25 percent of Boston's training dollars to allow customers to choose from among the existing contracted providers. The Boston PIC was especially interested in seeing how the logistical aspects of the project, such as paper flow and billing issues, would work. The...
