Beyond this, however, he made no attempt to find those who had never been enrolled or to keep track of the shifting element in the population. Although each child on the assessors book should have been reported either as in school (with the school specified) or at work, the truant officer did not compare this registration list with the school record in order to detect children who had failed to report. The actual extent of truancy, like the actual child population of the borough, was not known. Typical cases follow which suggest truancy not attributable to demand for child laborers, but resulting from carelessness of parents and lack of vigilance among the school authorities: J. S. , Clay St. ; n years old. Had been...
