Sonny expresses his belief that any good he may do is the result of God allowing him to excel. Sonny says; I was blessed being born to a Christian Mother and Dad. Looking back I remember my Mother singing as she worked around the house and in the garden. I believe my writing was a result of that. Sonny has been writing most all of his life. In December 1951 while in the 6th grade, he had a poem published in the Covington, Tennessee newspaper. His poem, The First Christmas won a cash prize in a Christmas story/poem contest and was published in The Covington Leader. Sonny loves writing songs and poetry, camping, fishing and working on old cars. He owns a 1956 Chevrolet which he enjoys driving.
