Reviews

This pdf is wonderful. It really is written in simple terms instead of hard to understand. It's been developed in an exceedingly simple way and it is just after I finished reading this ebook in which I in fact modified me, altered the way in my opinion.

William Morrow/BOMC. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. The author of such novels as The Good Daughters and Labor Day takes us back to 1979 in Marin County, California, where imaginative Rachel Torricelli and her little sister Patty spent their days exploring the mountain behind their home after their parents' divorce. When the bodies of several young women began turning up on the mountain trails, Rachel's father a charming, philandering detective was assigned to find the killer, dubbed the Sunset Strangler. Rachel saw her father fall apart as the case dragged on, and decided she could crack it herself with disastrous consequences. Thirty years later, haunted by the belief that the killer remains at large, Rachel embarks on a new plan to smoke him out and vindicate her father." In the summer of 1979, the Torricelli sisters, aspiring writer Rachel and her athletic younger sister, Patty, enjoy unlimited freedom exploring the mountain behind their home in Marin County, California. Their father is a charismatic detective for the San Francisco Police Department who has been chronically unfaithful to his wife, which has led to their divorce. Their emotionally fragile mother is severely depressed and spends a lot of time in her bedroom. The sisters amuse themselves by watching television through their neighbors' picture windows (providing their own dialogue). But their suburban life is upended when a serial killer starts leaving the bodies of young girls all over the trails of their beloved mountain. Their father, who loved to make his own pasta and belt out Dean Martin songs, is greatly diminished over the many years he devotes to trying to find the vicious killer. An affecting portrait of the relationship between a father and his daughters." Booklist 309.
